

March 6, 2015-

Have you heard....the Buckeye Video Game Trailer will debut in Lima at the Lima Noon Optimist Home Show and Business Expo March 13-15 at the Allen County Fairgrounds. The 32 foot long trailer can be taken to homes, schools, or businesses. The trailer can hold 20 people with a variety of video games available on five 50 inch screens. Eight people can play outside the trailer, weather permitting, on several different game consoles. The truck will travel within 60 miles of Lima and offers heating and air conditioning. The cost is roughly $300, depending on the time and length of rental. Details can be found at www.buckeyevideogametruck.com.

Courtesy of The Lima News